

Houston

Music and Lyrics by Keith Herbert

FREDDY

There is a place where they won't call me Freddy
There is a place I'm not the odd man out
There is a time when the future is ready
There is a time I like to dream about

ALL

That's right!

FREDDY

There is a home beyond the Blue Event Horizon
There is a home where we can all be free
There is a world where my clothes won't surprise 'em
There is a world where I can just be me

Let's go!

FREDDY

I'm going to Houston
But there's no need to cry
I know y'all will miss me
Still I'm saying goodbye
Might have to loosen
All the rules they have set
Take note, I'm leaving no regret

I'm going to Houston
And there's no turning back
Not taken lightly
To be frozen on the rack
I know that I confuse them
It's not a false display
I figure that's just finding my own way
My journey home

ALL

Houston we have a problem

FREDDY

Find River Tam where I can do a little fishing
Then climb a mountain name it Mervyn Peake
I'll dig a well and maybe do a little wishing
I'll work the land and get a buff physique
Ensemble:
Oh yeah!

I'll build a house out of logs from my forest
I'll make a home where all my kids can thrive
With no concern if we're rich or the poorest
We'll all be happy just to be alive

ALL

Nice dream!

FREDDY

I'm going to Houston
But there's no need to cry
I know y'all will miss me
Still I'm saying goodbye
Might have to loosen
All the rules they have set
Take note, I'm leaving no regret

I'm going to Houston
And there's no turning back
Not taken lightly
To be frozen on the rack
I know that I confuse them
It's not a false display
I figure that's just finding my own way
My journey home

I think we all agree
I have no hesitation
To state my proclamation
Houston is the place
Repeat it just in case
Houston is the place for me

ALL

Houston!

FREDDY

I'm going to Houston
But there's no need to cry
I know y'all will miss me
Still I'm saying goodbye
Might have to loosen
All the rules they have set
Take note, I'm leaving no regret

I'm going to Houston
And there's no turning back
Not taken lightly
To be frozen on the rack
I know that I confuse them
It's not a false display
I figure that's just finding my own way
My journey home
My journey home
My journey home
My journey home
